

The Reception Round-up!

Some of the lovely things we have been learning this week:

We have been learning about the Nativity and painting/creating Nativity scenes. We have enjoyed our play, 'Wriggly Nativity' and made everyone so proud! We enjoyed walking up to All Saints' to watch one of their Christmas plays this morning, too! This afternoon we made Snowman biscuits!

Some of the things that children might experience next week:

Lots of special Christmas traditions... Pantomime, Christmas Dinner, Church Service, Christmas Party and a visit from Santa!

Making Christmas crafts using lots of different resources.

Making and writing Christmas cards.

How you can help your child at home:

Forming their letters (starting where the red dot is!) Can you say a sound and they write it? Then challenge them with a simple word like: cat, bat, pen, tin. (The k is not loopy, but formed: k)

What's going on next week: We have a very busy and fun last week of term next week!

Tuesday 17th December we will have a pantomime visiting school.

Wednesday 18th December is our Christmas Dinner and Christmas Jumper Day so please remember to come dressed in your best Christmas jumper!

Thursday 19th December at 9am will be our Christmas Service in the church. We hope to see you all there. Then at lunchtime we will have our Christmas Party Lunch and Class Party during that afternoon, where there might be a visit from someone special! Children can wear their party clothes to school on Thursday!

The end of term is 3pm on Friday 20th December and we return on Tuesday 7th January.

No Wonderful Wellies next week and then please note your child's new day for their Wellies session.

Reminder: Please send in any slips for 'Tapestry' our online learning journal. I need your email address in order for you to have access in the New Year.
