Appendix 1:

The Owl and the Pussycat

The Owl and the Pussycat went to sea
In a beautiful pea green boat,
They took some honey, and plenty of money
Wrapped up in a five pound note.
The Owl looked up at the stars above,
And sang to a small guitar,
"O lovely Pussy! O Pussy, my love,
What a beautiful Pussy you are,
You are,
You are!
What a beautiful Pussy you are!"

Pussy said to the Owl, "You elegant fowl!
How charmingly sweet you sing!
O let us be married! too long we have tarried:
But what shall we do for a ring?"
They sailed away, for a year and a day,
To the land where the Bong-tree grows
And there in a wood a Piggy-wig stood
With a ring at the end of his nose,
His nose,
His nose,
With a ring at the end of his nose.

"Dear pig, are you willing to sell for one shilling
Your ring?" Said the Piggy, "I will."
So they took it away, and were married next day
By the Turkey who lives on the hill.
They dined on mince, and slices of quince,
Which they ate with a runcible spoon;
And hand in hand, on the edge of the sand,
They danced by the light of the moon,
The moon,
The moon,
They danced by the light of the moon.

Dear Acorns and Chestnuts,

We all hope you have enjoyed another fun week, working hard at your home learning and doing lots of reading too! You have been doing so well so lots of congratulations from us to you and to your adult helpers at home too.

Mrs Old, Mrs Madagan and Mrs Smith are having fun weeks. Mrs Old has been experimenting with lots of new recipes which Mr Old has been really enjoying. She is happy about the rain too which is helping to make her garden grow very fast. Mrs Madagan is busy running around after her mischievous cats and has been enjoying planting lots of vegetable seeds in her garden. Mrs Smith was very excited to spot an unusual bird outside her garage. She didn't know what it was, so took a photo of it, did some research, and found out it's a sparrowhawk. She has sent a picture for you all to see. Apparently they're quite rare. Have you seen any interesting wildlife whilst on your daily walks?

Continue to have fun and work hard!
